PAVRU, Philippines – USAMC-AFRIMS has 4 personnel in Cebu City and 2 personnel in Manila to support ongoing disease surveillance studies for emerging and re-emerging diseases to include dengue, influenza, leptospirosis and typhus. PAVRU facilities consist of a research office and laboratory/data management space in Cebu City.

SPECIAL EVENTS

A Change of Command for the USAMC-AFRIMS took place on October 3, 2007, with Colonel James W. Boles, VC assuming command from Colonel Bonnie L. Sloak, MC.

A Change of Command for the Thai Component, AFRIMS took place on October 5, 2007, with Major General Krisada Duangurai, MD assuming the position of Director General from Major General Anont Nobthai, MD.

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION

DEPARTMENT MISSION

The mission of the Department of Administration is to provide administrative support to the USAMC-AFRIMS research departments in the areas of personnel administration, resource management, information management, library research, audio-visual products, Thai language instruction, safety, biosafety, radiation protection monitoring, and occupational health.

Lieutenant Colonel William E. Geesey became the Deputy Commander in May 2007 following the retirement of Lieutenant Colonel James McLain.

PERSONNEL

As of CY 2007